Financial Consideration

The Jonathan House has as our main goal – “to set the captives free,” whether that’s an individual struggling with issues, a business that looks like it is headed towards failure, or out of the ordinary things happening in your home. We have a long-standing policy stating we will not withhold ministry from anyone due to their lack of finances. However, we want you to be aware that we are solely supported by the donations from people receiving ministry and you should make every possible attempt to make a financial donation toward your ministry experience.

We strongly believe in the spiritual law of sowing and reaping - that if you want to be blessed you need to sow seeds of blessing and then in return you will be blessed. You can bless The Jonathan House Ministries with monthly support, with a portion of your tithe, or a one-time donation at the time of your ministry. If your home/property is not in our local area, we ask that you cover all travel expenses.

Please carefully read over the donation options on the following page and check the one that works best for you and your budget. Since all ministry sessions are by appointment, we will contact you to schedule your Home & Property Cleansing once we have received your completed questionnaire and a minimum $50 deposit.

Please remember that The Jonathan House is only able to offer this much needed ministry to the body of Christ because of generous gifts from people like you. We are a non-profit, faith-based organization, and have a 501(c) (3) standing with the IRS. All of your financial donations to the ministry are tax deductible. We accept ministry donations in the form of money orders, cash, checks, Pay Pal, or credit/debit cards.
